955 Rochedale Rd, Rochedale

The Bonds of Love

By St Catherine of Siena, Virgin and Doctor

In our parish, we have been playing a series of videos, Pivotal Players. In the videos, Bishop Robert Barron, bishop of Wiltona-Rochester diocese, unlocks the truth behind the Catholic Church's most influential people. They include some saints, artists, mystics and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of civilization. We have played the videos on the lives of St Francis of Assisi, St Thomas Aquinas, St Catherine of Siena and St John Henry Newman. As we have become familiar with the lives of these important people of the Church, I think that it would be a good time for us to read some articles by them. On the weekend of Corpus Christi, we read an article by St Thomas Aquinas, titled 'Precious and Wonderful Banquet' on the sacrament of Eucharist. This weekend, I would like to recommend an article by St Catherine of Siena on love. It is the second reading from the Office of Readings for this Sunday. Enjoy reading.

Fr Baiyi

My sweet Lord, look with mercy upon your people and especially upon the mystical body of your Church. Greater glory is given to your name for pardoning a multitude of your creatures than if I alone were pardoned for my great sins against your majesty. It would be no consolation for me to enjoy your life if your holy people stood in death. For I see that sin darkens the life of your bride the Church – my sin and the sins of others.

It is a special grace I ask for, this pardon for the creatures you have made in your image and likeness. When you created man, you were moved by love to make him in your own image. Surely only love could so dignify your creatures. But I know very well that man lost the dignity you gave him; he deserved to lose it, since he had committed sin.

Moved by love and wishing to reconcile the human race to yourself, you gave us your only-begotten Son. He became our mediator and our justice by taking on all our injustice and sin out of obedience to your will, eternal Father, just as you willed that he take on our human nature. What an immeasurably profound love! Your Son went down from the heights of his divinity to the depths of our humanity.

Can anyone's heart remain closed and hardened after this? We image your divinity, but you image our humanity in that union of the two which you have worked in a man. You have veiled the Godhead in a cloud, in the clay of our humanity. Only your love could so dignify the flesh of Adam. And so by reason of this immeasurable love I beg, with all the strength of my soul, that you freely extend your mercy to all your lowly creatures.

Vocation Awareness Week: This week 7th to 14th August is Vocation Awareness Week. Vocation means God calls, and we respond. Why does it matter that people discover their God-given vocations? Because the Church relies on the unique contribution of every person. As St John Henry Newman reflected, "God has created me to do some special service; God has committed some work to which has not been committed to another. I HAVE A MISSION". Where is God calling you?

Safeguarding Children & Adults-at-risk: The Archdiocese has prepared two short safeguarding surveys to help gather feedback from children and the Church community. The surveys are completely anonymous and the parish will not be identified. The surveys can be completed on a computer, laptop, tablet or mobile phone.

Online Child Safeguarding Survey (5 – 12 years) Parents and Guardians may wish to assist children in completing the survey and explore their responses if needed.

Online Parish Safeguarding Survey (Adults) This survey is seeking information from parish workers and parish congregations/communities, and should take less than 1 minute to complete.

Faith Matters: Our Rich Inheritance: Love, Mercy, Generosity

Luke's gospel (12: 13-21) causes us to pause and to consider how we are called to serve in the 'way of Christ'.

Making ourselves rich ... we have received so much from our heavenly Father. How do we use and share our personal gifts and talents, our bountiful harvest, even our worldly goods?

Do we 'build a bigger barn' to store, to accumulate the riches we have gathered?

How could we offer ourselves generously - our time, our attention, our creativity - in the service of others?

Making ourselves rich in the sight of God...

Two young men, following their final years of schooling, found their way to serve. It began humbly. Their simple desire was to serve those people who were living rough, homeless and without the comforts we take so much for granted - clean clothes. Beyond this, they saw the deepest potential in being together with people, in conversation, seated in their trademark orange chairs.

Encouraged by Pope Francis We Pray

May Mary Most Holy help us to feel every day the joy and wonder of being called by God to work for Him, in His field which is the world, in His vineyard which is the Church. And to have as our only recompense His love, our friendship with Jesus.
