Fourth Sunday of Advent

18th December 2022

Readings: Isaiah 7:10-14 Romans 1:1-7 Matthew 1:18-24

God showed his love through his Son

We are celebrating the fourth Sunday of Advent this weekend, only one week away from Christmas. As we have been preparing ourselves well for this solemnity through the season of Advent, we must be feeling God's love more deeply and have greatly strengthened our love for God and other people. Let us continue to do so in this last week of Advent. Below is an excerpt of the Letter to Diognetus. It is a 13th century manuscript discovered in Constantinople in 1436. The Letter is a Christian apologetic work dating from the 2nd century. The author and the recipient are unknown. The Letter is valuable as showing the nature of Christian belief in those very early days. Enjoy reading.

Fr Baiyi

No man has ever seen God or known him, but God has revealed himself to us through faith, by which alone it is possible to see him. God, the Lord and maker of all things, who created the world and set it in order, not only loved man but was also patient with him. So he has always been, and is, and will be: kind, good, free from anger, truthful; indeed, he and he alone is good.

He devised a plan, a great and wonderful plan, and shared it only with his Son. As long as he preserved this secrecy and kept his own wise counsel he seemed to be neglecting us, to have no concern for us. But when through his beloved Son he revealed and made public what he had prepared from the very beginning, he gave us all at once gifts such as we could never have dreamt of, even sight and knowledge of himself.

When God had made all his plans in consultation with his Son, he waited until a later time, allowing us to follow our own whim, to be swept along by unruly passions, to be led astray by pleasure and desire. Not that he was pleased by our sins: he only tolerated them. Not that he approved of that time of sin: he was planning this era of holiness. When we had been shown to be undeserving of life, his goodness was to make us worthy of it. When we had made it clear that we could not enter God's kingdom by our own power, we were to be enabled to do so by the power of God.

When our wickedness had reached its culmination, it became clear that retribution was at hand in the shape of suffering and death. The time came then for God to make known his kindness and power (how immeasurable is God's generosity and love!). He did not show hatred for us or reject us or take vengeance; instead, he was patient with us, bore with us, and in compassion took our sins upon himself; he gave his own Son as the price of our redemption, the holy one to redeem the wicked, the sinless one to redeem sinners, the just one to redeem the unjust, the incorruptible one to redeem the corruptible, the immortal one to redeem mortals. For what else could have covered our sins but his sinlessness? Where else could we, wicked and sinful as we were, have found the means of holiness except in the Son of God alone?

How wonderful a transformation, how mysterious a design, how inconceivable a blessing! The wickedness of the many is covered up in the holy One, and the holiness of One sanctifies many sinners.

Note: Next weekend we will have the special Christmas newsletter so today's edition covers dates & information for 2 weeks.

Faith Matters: Incarnation

In the Incarnation, God assumed a body and became a man. This breathtaking event permanently removed God from the detached status of a theological abstraction. In assuming human nature Jesus hid His divinity to become one with us and to elevate humans to share in the divine life (2 Pet 1:4) and become God's family (1 Jn 3:1). Intimate communion with God becomes possible in Jesus. The divine Word embraced all humanity when he assumed a human body. The staggering reality of the Incarnation is that the God-man made our divinization possible. In assuming a body God made it possible for humans to become like him by elevating us to share in his nature (2 Pet 1:4)! This idea is captured in the beautiful prayer the priest prays at the offertory of the Mass as he adds a little water to the wine: "By the mystery of this water and wine may we share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity." This stupendous reality is experienced through our bodies.
